"Every single inch of ground that woman stands upon today has been gained by the hard work of some little handful of women of the past."

— Susan B. Anthony

UPCOMING EVENTS FOR 2003

Susan B. Anthony Birthday Luncheon
Thursday, February 13
Rochester Riverside Convention Center
Guest Speaker: Helen Thomas
Individual tickets are available at all Wegmans Home Video Departments.
Table are available by calling (585) 279-7490, ext. 15.

10th Annual Education Contest
Grades 4-12
January through March
Tuesday, May 6—Awards Ceremony
Rochester Museum & Science Center

6th Annual Golf Scramble
Thursday, June 19
Victor Hills Golf Course

19th Amendment Commemoration
Tuesday, August 26
Mount Hope Cemetery

4th Annual Legacy Race
5K Run/Walk for Women’s Progress
September
www.rochester.edu/SBA

Look for more details at www.susanbanthonyhouse.org

Mission

OF THE SUSAN B. ANTHONY HOUSE

is to disseminate the story of Susan B. Anthony’s life-long struggle to gain the right to vote for women and to secure civil, political, social, educational, and economic rights for all Americans. To achieve this, we own, manage, protect, and preserve the home where Susan B. Anthony lived from 1866 until her death in 1906; collect artifacts and research materials directly related to Anthony’s life and work; and make these resources available to the public through tours, exhibitions, publications, and educational programs.
Continuing Our Growth

Dear Member,

The Susan B. Anthony House has experienced a year of tremendous growth, despite the slowdown in the economy and indications that tourism would be down this year as a result of the tragic day of September 11, 2001.

The home of Susan B. Anthony instead has become a Mecca of sorts for American citizens on journeys in search of rediscovering their heritage and their country’s history. Anthony is the embodiment of the true American hero—a citizen who advocated for change and social reform so that all citizens would be free and equal in the eyes of the law.

In August 2001, we celebrated the anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment with a parade and the unveiling of Let’s Have Tea, a sculpture of Susan B. Anthony and her longtime friend Frederick Douglass. The sculpture, created by neighborhood artist Pepsy M. Kettavong, has a permanent home in Susan B. Anthony Square.

Anthony was the inspiration for another kind of art. Australian cultivator Bernard Pryor created the SUSAN B. ANTHONY IRIS in honor of the famed suffragist. The Iris will be unveiled during Pacific Flora 2004 in Hamamatsu, Japan—and will be unveiled in Japan in June 2004.

Last fall, we participated in the inaugural year of the High Falls Film Festival, an international festival dedicated to rediscovering the eyes of the law. Let’s Have Tea, created by neighborhood artist Pepsy M. Kettavong, has a permanent home in Susan B. Anthony Square.

We also helped Flower City Habitat launch its Women Building a Legacy project, which will result in the first new women-built home to be built in more than a century in the Susan B. Anthony Preservation District. The home of Susan B. Anthony instead has become a Mecca of sorts for American citizens on journeys in search of rediscovering their heritage and their country’s history. Anthony is the embodiment of the true American hero—a citizen who advocated for change and social reform so that all citizens would be free and equal in the eyes of the law.

The year 2001-2002 has brought many interesting people onto Madison Street and through the doors of The House. With sincere thanks,

With sincere thanks,

Patrick R. Carey
Chair, Board of Trustees
2001–2003

Lorie Lachhua Barnum
Executive Director

Thanks

Financial Summary
Fiscal period ending May 31, 2002

Operating Support and Revenue

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Source</th>
<th>% of Total</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Grants</td>
<td>28%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Donations, Memberships, and Special Events</td>
<td>11%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Admission and Program Income</td>
<td>21%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Investment Income</td>
<td>14%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Programs</td>
<td>10%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General and Administrative</td>
<td>14%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Development</td>
<td>10%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Programs</td>
<td>76%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Use of Funds

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>% of Total</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Programs</td>
<td>76%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Development</td>
<td>10%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General and Administrative</td>
<td>14%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Administration and Special Events</td>
<td>10%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Admission and Program Income</td>
<td>21%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Investment Income</td>
<td>14%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grants</td>
<td>28%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Thanks for special funding provided by the Dr. Bernard B. and Ruth M. Brody Trust, Gleason Foundation and U.S. Department of the Interior National Parks

Vision of the Susan B. Anthony House

Susan B. Anthony—Still inspiring each of us to act for the good of all, believing “failure is impossible.”

Executive Director
Lorie Lachhua Barnum
Serving June 1, 2001–May 31, 2002

Board of Trustees
Serving June 1, 2001–May 31, 2002

Emilie B. Appleby
Suzanne W. Baldwin
Joan A. Bowden
Ann M. Brown
Rebecca Carter
Patricia R. Carey
Mary J. Chisnall
Lois F. Coon
Mary M. Egan
William E. Engeman
Julia L. Fink
Dolores J. Rose
Jane Plitt
William B. Morse
Steve Morse
Valerie Mannix
Eric W. Logan
Ed Hall
Alan Iag
Teresa Johnson
Charlotte A. Winer
Eric W. Logan
Valerie Mannix
Steve Morse
William R. Morse
James E. Paton
Jane Pitt
Gail Ramachandran
Dolores J. Rose
Joanne Varzand

Emeritus Trustees
Lorraine Cappello
Marion Casey
Georgia Dillard
Helen Mary Hogan
Colyeen Hunt
Mary M. Hush
Margaret MacNab
Pearl Molyneaux
Margaret Seward
Betty Stilman
Lola Stimper
Elizabeth M. Trall
Beverly Barr Vaughan

The Susan B. Anthony House and its supporters are saddened by the loss of an early supporter. Trustee Marion Casey.

Advisory Board
David Bandych
Kathy Conner
Bill Edwards
Jeremy Lloyd
Ruth Poisenberg/Napieroski
Richard Shrews
Rosa Werns

Staff Listing
Full- and part-time staff
Shannon M. Raik, Deputy Director
Rita L. Gere, CRW, Finance Manager
Nancy Pagano, Development Director
Mary E. McCrack, Public Relations Manager
Julie Ann Madonia, Assistant to the Executive Director
Juliana Wetten, Star Secretary
Jacqueline Hicks, Receptionist
Sue Gaffney, Volunteer Liaison and Weekend Coordinator
Len Prizzi, Weekend Coordinator
Doug Thompson, Custodian

Consultant
Judy Emerick, Curator of Collections

Annual Report
Mary E. McCrack, Editor
Carol Bassett, Design
Mercury Print Productions, Printing
Patricia Hopkins, Mary E. McCrack and Ken Pamatat, Photography
Susan B. Anthony's Armchair Conserved

In the spring of 2002, Susan B. Anthony's armchair was returned to the museum after its seat was restored by a leather conservator in Maryland. Identified by the Western New York Conservation Guild's Angel Project in 1992 as one of our collection items in most need of treatment, the chair was conserved, thanks to a generous donation from the Antiquarian Study Club of Rochester.

Anthony was photographed sitting on this oak Victorian chair in the attic workroom of her home at 17 Madison Street. The roof of the house was raised to create this much-needed workspace in 1895. Anthony used the chair at her desk and worktable while she tended to all facets of her work for woman suffrage.

Mrs. Bert Van Wie donated the chair to the Susan B. Anthony Memorial in May 1945.
The Susan B. Anthony House gained international exposure this year through its love of TV, as it was prominently featured in an I Love NY TV commercial produced by the New York State Department of Economic Development.

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY ad campaign showed viewers the most picturesque sites in New York State through the eyes of children. Adah Regev of Ovid, Seneca County, told the cameras that 17 Madison Street is the “home of change” while standing in front of the long-time home of Susan B. Anthony.

A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Historic Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

Susan B. Anthony

“IT’S THE HOME OF CHANGE”

One of our most successful projects this year was the Susan B. Anthony golf scramble. The event was held on June 20, 2001, at the Geneva Country Club.

The proceeds from the scramble will be used to support the Susan B. Anthony House and its programming.

The golfers enjoyed the day at the golf course, and the event was a huge success.

Susan B. Anthony House Members

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again, and even more of our “Susan B. Anthony” fans and friends were able to join in the fun. We are grateful to the golfers and sponsors who made the event possible.

Golf scramble participants included:

- Martha Kelly
- Alex "Al" Kelly
- Anna Marie Mathers
- Eric W. Logan
- Margaret M. Schmitt
- Susan E. Lowery
- Jennifer Loeb
- Margaret Onofre
- Karen Johnson
- Peter W. Smith
- Mary H. Johnson
- Ellen S. Huggins
- Elizabeth W. Kessinger

We would like to thank all of our sponsors and golfers who made this event possible.

The following sponsors contributed to the success of the golf scramble:

- $100 and Over
  - Dr. Susan Hanson
  - Dr. Richard O’Donnell
  - Dr. Susan Kharbas
  - Douglas J. Randall
  - Dr. Lorraine A. Sherwood

- $50 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $25 and Over
  - Patrick Sampson-Schunder
  - Robert L. Sampson
  - Dunkirk
golfer
- $10 and Over
  - Frances A. Hauenstein
  - Dr. John H. Adams
  - William B. Kuchar
  - Lynne L. Stace
  - Rob Street
  - Tom M. Mohan
  - R. Capehart
  - A. Adams

- $5 and Over
  - William B. Kuchar
  - Lynne L. Stace
  - Rob Street
  - Tom M. Mohan
  - R. Capehart
  - A. Adams

- $1 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $100 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $50 and Over
  - Patrick Sampson-Schunder
  - Robert L. Sampson
  - Dunkirk
golfer
- $25 and Over
  - Frances A. Hauenstein
  - Dr. John H. Adams
  - William B. Kuchar
  - Lynne L. Stace
  - Rob Street
  - Tom M. Mohan
  - R. Capehart
  - A. Adams

- $10 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $5 and Over
  - Patrick Sampson-Schunder
  - Robert L. Sampson
  - Dunkirk
golfer
- $1 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $100 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $50 and Over
  - Patrick Sampson-Schunder
  - Robert L. Sampson
  - Dunkirk
golfer
- $25 and Over
  - Frances A. Hauenstein
  - Dr. John H. Adams
  - William B. Kuchar
  - Lynne L. Stace
  - Rob Street
  - Tom M. Mohan
  - R. Capehart
  - A. Adams

- $10 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $5 and Over
  - Patrick Sampson-Schunder
  - Robert L. Sampson
  - Dunkirk
golfer
- $1 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $100 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $50 and Over
  - Patrick Sampson-Schunder
  - Robert L. Sampson
  - Dunkirk
golfer
- $25 and Over
  - Frances A. Hauenstein
  - Dr. John H. Adams
  - William B. Kuchar
  - Lynne L. Stace
  - Rob Street
  - Tom M. Mohan
  - R. Capehart
  - A. Adams

- $10 and Over
  - Virginia C. Payne
  - Virginia S. Banfield
  - Mary L. Duggan
  - Martin B. Bouchard
  - Carol S. Donnelly
  - Robert J. Donnelly
  - Robert S. Baskin
  - Peggy Brown
  - Kathy G. Russell
  - James J. Rusk
  - Helen Tanenbaum

- $5 and Over
  - Patrick Sampson-Schunder
  - Robert L. Sampson
  - Dunkirk
golfer
- $1 and Over
Volunteering for a good cause
We were thrilled that so many wonderful volunteers helped keep the gardens to the Anthony House in tip-top shape this past year. We couldn’t have done it without you. Left and middle: Students from the National Technical Institute for the Deaf spend a day gardening and doing yard work in October 2001. Right: Susan Weiner sweeps the grounds on Mitsvah Day in October 2001. Susan volunteered with her family and others from Temple Beth Rish. Kodesh.

International Education
International students who are deaf and hard-of-hearing toured The House in April 2001 as part of a program aimed at inclusive education.

Happy B-day, Susan B.
Luncheon Co-Chairs Dr. Esther Denaro Maltese, l., and Betsy Harrison, r., talk to the audience, as keynote speaker Patricia Scott Schroeder, Executive Director Lorie Lachiusa Barnum, WHEC-TV 10 Anchor Janet Lomax and Congresswoman Louise M. Slaughter, applaud.

History is fun
Children get the chance to learn a little about history while having fun on Madison Street. The Susan B. Anthony Kids Club and other children marched in the parade, showed off Girl Scouts badges and talked with people portraying historical figures during the 19th Amendment festival.

Sculpture Unveiling
Let’s Have Tea, a sculpture depicting Susan B. Anthony and Frederick Douglass talking over a cup of tea, was unveiled during the Susan B. Anthony 19th Amendment Celebration in August 2001. Pepsy M. Netravong, an artist who lives in the neighborhood, created the bronze sculpture. The unveiling was the highlight of the celebration and attracted Anthony relatives, dignitaries, community residents and the media to the event, making it one of the most well-attended celebrations in recent history. The sculpture has a permanent home in Susan B. Anthony Square, a park down the street from The House. The sculpture has attracted more tourists to the area, and many visitors walk down to the Square after visiting The House.

19th Amendment Parade
The Susan B. Anthony Celebration, a parade and festival commemorating the 19th Amendment, also was a big success and attracted many long-time supporters. Among these supporters were women veterans who served alongside men in World War II. Below, Emeritus Trustee and Navy WAVE Lois Strohmayer, left, and Emeritus Trustee Margaret Seward, right, wave to the crowd.

More than 500 people turned out to watch or march in the parade and to partake in the day’s activities, which included historical talks, music and theatrical performances, arts and crafts and food. The House also offered half-priced tours that day as a way of giving back to the community.
Election Day

We continued our Election Day tradition by opening the doors to The House free to voters bearing an ‘I Voted Today’ sticker. The 9th annual contest attracted several hundred entries from students in fourth through 12th grades in Monroe County schools and the awards ceremony was well attended as more than 300 people—parents, family members, friends and educators—turned out to support the students who entered the contest.

Students expressed their thoughts about Anthony in the form of speeches, essays, posters, poetry and performance art.

The students heard from several local residents who have earned national honors in those fields: (bottom photo, l. to r.) musician Gap Mangione, News 8 Now Anchor Maureen McGuire, Newbury Award winner Linda Sue Park, Presidential speechwriter Curt Smith and artist Pepsy Kettavong.

Students expressed their thoughts about Anthony in the form of speeches, essays, posters, poetry and performance art.

The students heard from several local residents who have earned national honors in those fields: (bottom photo, l. to r.) musician Gap Mangione, News 8 Now Anchor Maureen McGuire, Newbury Award winner Linda Sue Park, Presidential speechwriter Curt Smith and artist Pepsy Kettavong.

The 9th annual contest attracted several hundred entries from students in fourth through 12th grades in Monroe County schools and the awards ceremony was well attended as more than 300 people—parents, family members, friends and educators—turned out to support the students who entered the contest.

Students expressed their thoughts about Anthony in the form of speeches, essays, posters, poetry and performance art.

The students heard from several local residents who have earned national honors in those fields: (bottom photo, l. to r.) musician Gap Mangione, News 8 Now Anchor Maureen McGuire, Newbury Award winner Linda Sue Park, Presidential speechwriter Curt Smith and artist Pepsy Kettavong.

Election Day

We continued our Election Day tradition by opening the doors to The House free to voters bearing an ‘I Voted Today’ sticker. The 9th annual contest attracted several hundred entries from students in fourth through 12th grades in Monroe County schools and the awards ceremony was well attended as more than 300 people—parents, family members, friends and educators—turned out to support the students who entered the contest.

Students expressed their thoughts about Anthony in the form of speeches, essays, posters, poetry and performance art.

The students heard from several local residents who have earned national honors in those fields: (bottom photo, l. to r.) musician Gap Mangione, News 8 Now Anchor Maureen McGuire, Newbury Award winner Linda Sue Park, Presidential speechwriter Curt Smith and artist Pepsy Kettavong.

The 9th annual contest attracted several hundred entries from students in fourth through 12th grades in Monroe County schools and the awards ceremony was well attended as more than 300 people—parents, family members, friends and educators—turned out to support the students who entered the contest.

Students expressed their thoughts about Anthony in the form of speeches, essays, posters, poetry and performance art.

The students heard from several local residents who have earned national honors in those fields: (bottom photo, l. to r.) musician Gap Mangione, News 8 Now Anchor Maureen McGuire, Newbury Award winner Linda Sue Park, Presidential speechwriter Curt Smith and artist Pepsy Kettavong.
Election Day

We continued our Election Day tradition by opening the doors to The House free to voters bearing an I Voted Today sticker. Susan B. Anthony was arrested for voting in 1872 and spent her life working to gain women the right to vote so they would have equality in all areas of their lives, including rights to property, wages and education. The 19th Amendment, which guaranteed women the right to vote, was nicknamed the Susan B. Anthony Amendment in honor of the famous suffragist’s work. Anthony died in 1906, 14 years before the Amendment was ratified.

Students expressed their thoughts about Anthony in the form of speeches, essays, posters, poetry and performance art. The students heard from several local residents who have earned national honors in those fields—(bottom photo, l. to r.) musician Gap Mangione, News 8 Now Anchor Maureen McGuire, Newbury Award-winner Linda Sue Park, Presidential speechwriter Curt Smith and artist Pepay Remaving.

Happy Birthday, Susan B. Anthony!

Former Congresswoman Patricia Scott Schroeder entertained the audience at the annual Susan B. Anthony Birthday Luncheon in February with her wit and keen take on the world. About 800 people packed the Rochester Riverfront Convention Center to hear Schroeder and celebrate the birthday of Anthony (February 15, 1820-March 13, 1906). Schroeder, who now serves as the president and CEO of the Association of American Publishers, was first elected to the House of Representatives in 1972 and went on to serve 24 years in Congress. She was one of few women in modern times to be a candidate for the Presidency of the United States of America.

Schroeder also signed copies of her most recent book, 24 Years of House Work...and the Place is Still a Mess: My Life in Politics. Many thanks to Schroeder and Rochester Gas & Electric, which sponsored the event.

2002 Education Contest

This year’s education contest winners included a play about Anthony’s trial and a violin composition about the meeting of Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton. The 9th annual contest attracted several hundred entries from students in fourth through 12th grades in Monroe County schools. And the awards ceremony was well attended as more than 300 people—parents, family members, friends and educators—turned out to support the students who earned top honors.

The students heard from several local residents who have earned national honors in those fields—(bottom photo, l. to r.) musician Gap Mangione, News 8 Now Anchor Maureen McGuire, Newbury Award-winner Linda Sue Park, Presidential speechwriter Curt Smith and artist Pepay Remaving.
Volunteering for a good cause
We were thrilled that so many wonderful volunteers helped keep the gardens to the Anthony House in tip-top shape this past year. We couldn’t have done it without you. Left and middle: Students from the National Technical Institute for the Deaf spend a day gardening and doing yard work in October 2001. Right: Susan Weiner sweeps the grounds on Mitzvah Day in October 2001. Susan volunteered with her family and others from Temple B’rith Kodesh.

History is fun
Children got the chance to learn a little about history while having fun on Madison Street. The Susan B. Anthony Kids Club and other children marched in the parade, showed off Girl Scout badges and talked with people portraying historical figures during the 19th Amendment festival.

Happy B-day, Susan B.
Lambeth Co-Chairs Dr. Esther Donato Melillo, L., and Baby Harrison, L., talk to the audience, as keynote speaker Virginia Scott Schoeder, Executive Director Lorie Lachiusa Barnum, WHJC-TV 10 Anchor Janet Lomax and Congresswoman Louise M. Slaughter, applaud.

International Education
International students who are deaf and hard-of-hearing toured The House in April 2001 as part of a program aimed at inclusive education.

Sculpture Unveiling
Let’s Have Tea, a sculpture depicting Susan B. Anthony and Frederick Douglass talking over a cup of tea, was unveiled during the Susan B. Anthony 19th Amendment Celebration in August 2001. Pepsy M. Kettavong, an artist who lives in the neighborhood, created the bronze sculpture. The unveiling was the highlight of the celebration and attracted Anthony relatives, dignitaries, community residents and the media to the event, making it one of the most well-attended celebrations in recent history.

The sculpture has a permanent home in Susan B. Anthony Square, a park down the street from The House. The sculpture has attracted more tourists to the area, and many visitors walk down to the Square after visiting The House.

19th Amendment Parade
The Susan B. Anthony Celebration, a parade and festival commemorating the 19th Amendment, also was a big success and attracted many long-time supporters. Among these supporters were women veterans who served alongside men in World War II. Below, Emeritus Trustee and Navy WAVES Lois Strohmayer, left, and Emeritus Trustee Margaret Seward, right, wave to the crowd.

More than 500 people turned out to watch or march in the parade and to partake in the day’s activities, which included historical talks, music and theatrical performances, arts and crafts and food. The House also offered half-priced tours that day as a way of giving back to the community.

Volunteering for a good cause
We were thrilled that so many wonderful volunteers helped keep the gardens to the Anthony House in tip-top shape this past year. We couldn’t have done it without you. Left and middle: Students from the National Technical Institute for the Deaf spend a day gardening and doing yard work in October 2001. Right: Susan Weiner sweeps the grounds on Mitzvah Day in October 2001. Susan volunteered with her family and others from Temple B’rith Kodesh.

History is fun
Children got the chance to learn a little about history while having fun on Madison Street. The Susan B. Anthony Kids Club and other children marched in the parade, showed off Girl Scout badges and talked with people portraying historical figures during the 19th Amendment festival.

Happy B-day, Susan B.
Lambeth Co-Chairs Dr. Esther Donato Melillo, L., and Baby Harrison, L., talk to the audience, as keynote speaker Virginia Scott Schoeder, Executive Director Lorie Lachiusa Barnum, WHJC-TV 10 Anchor Janet Lomax and Congresswoman Louise M. Slaughter, applaud.

International Education
International students who are deaf and hard-of-hearing toured The House in April 2001 as part of a program aimed at inclusive education.

Sculpture Unveiling
Let’s Have Tea, a sculpture depicting Susan B. Anthony and Frederick Douglass talking over a cup of tea, was unveiled during the Susan B. Anthony 19th Amendment Celebration in August 2001. Pepsy M. Kettavong, an artist who lives in the neighborhood, created the bronze sculpture. The unveiling was the highlight of the celebration and attracted Anthony relatives, dignitaries, community residents and the media to the event, making it one of the most well-attended celebrations in recent history.

The sculpture has a permanent home in Susan B. Anthony Square, a park down the street from The House. The sculpture has attracted more tourists to the area, and many visitors walk down to the Square after visiting The House.

19th Amendment Parade
The Susan B. Anthony Celebration, a parade and festival commemorating the 19th Amendment, also was a big success and attracted many long-time supporters. Among these supporters were women veterans who served alongside men in World War II. Below, Emeritus Trustee and Navy WAVES Lois Strohmayer, left, and Emeritus Trustee Margaret Seward, right, wave to the crowd.

More than 500 people turned out to watch or march in the parade and to partake in the day’s activities, which included historical talks, music and theatrical performances, arts and crafts and food. The House also offered half-priced tours that day as a way of giving back to the community.
One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

GOLF SCRAMBLE

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

It’s the home of change!

Susan B. Anthony House Members

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

Golf Scramble

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

Golf Scramble

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

Golf Scramble

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

Golf Scramble

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.

One of the most recognized advertising campaigns in the world, the I LOVE NY COMMERCIAL make one of our biggest annual fundraisers a success.

Our annual golf scramble was a huge success again and even brought in more than $100,000 for the Susan B. Anthony House. A 50-member crew from New York City spent a March day here filming on Madison Street for three spots on the commercial. The “Heritage Home” spots were aired during the spring in the United States and Canada.
Susan B. Anthony's Armchair Conserved

In the spring of 2002, Susan B. Anthony's armchair was returned to the museum after its seat was restored by a leather conservator in Maryland. Identified by the Western New York Conservation Guild's Angel Project in 1992 as one of our collection items in most need of treatment, the chair was conserved, thanks to a generous donation from the Antiquarian Study Club of Rochester.

Anthony was photographed sitting on this oak Victorian chair in the attic workroom of her home at 17 Madison Street. The roof of the house was raised to create this much-needed workspace in 1895. Anthony used the chair at her desk and worktable while she tended to all facets of her work for woman suffrage.

Mrs. Bert Van Wie donated the chair to the Susan B. Anthony Memorial in May 1945.
Continuing Our Growth

Dear Member,

The Susan B. Anthony House has experienced a year of tremendous growth, despite the slowdown in the economy and indications tourism would be down this year as a result of the tragic day of September 11, 2001.

The home of Susan B. Anthony instead has become a Mecca of sorts for American citizens on journeys in search of rediscovering their heritage and their country’s history. Anthony is the embodiment of the true American hero—a citizen who advocated for change and social reform so that all citizens would be free and equal in the eyes of the law.

The year 2001-2002 has brought many interesting people onto Madison Street and through the doors of The House. In August 2001, we celebrated the anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment with a parade and the unveiling of Let’s Have Tea, a sculpture of Susan B. Anthony and her longtime friend Frederick Douglass. The sculpture, created by neighborhood artist Peppe M. Keatavong, has a permanent home in Susan B. Anthony Square.

The home of Susan B. Anthony instead has become a Mecca of sorts for American citizens on journeys in search of rediscovering their heritage and their country’s history. Anthony is the embodiment of the true American hero—a citizen who advocated for change and social reform so that all citizens would be free and equal in the eyes of the law.

Anthony was the inspiration for another kind of art. Australian cultivator Bernard Pryor created the SUSAN B. ANTHONY IRIS in honor of the famed suffragist. The iris will be unveiled during Pacific Flora 2004 in Hamamatsu, Japan—one of Rochester’s Sister Cities. An Iris Friendship Garden at Highland Park in Rochester will mirror the one in Japan and will be unveiled in June 2004.

Last fall, we participated in the inaugural year of the High Falls Film Festival, an international festival dedicated to showcasing the work of women in all aspects of filmmaking. The premiere award of the festival is the Susan B. Anthony—Failure Is Impossible” Award. “The city of Rochester is the perfect choice as a home for this one-of-a-kind festival. It is the birthplace of the women’s suffrage movement and home to Susan B. Anthony and her tireless efforts on behalf of the rights of women,” said actress/director Anjelica Houston, an honorary co-chair of the festival.

We also helped Flower City Habitat launch its Women Building a Legacy project, which will result in the first new women-built home in more than a century in the Susan B. Anthony Preservation District. The “women-built home” will be a welcome addition to the neighborhood, as will our new neighbors.

We also completed renovations this year. We are pleased to say that 16 Madison Street has been renovated and now houses our administration offices. We are fortunate to have this Queen Anne Victorian, thanks to the Bernard B. and Ruth M. Brody Trust and Key Bank.

We are grateful for all you have done to help make this year great! We couldn’t do it without you.

With sincere thanks,

[Signature]

[Image]

Financial Summary
Fiscal period ending May 31, 2002

Operating Support and Revenue

- 11% Investment Income
- 28% Donations, Memberships, and Special Events
- 21% Admissions and Program Income
- 40% Grants

Use of Funds

- 14% General and Administrative
- 10% Development
- 76% Programs

Vision of the Susan B. Anthony House

Susan B. Anthony—Still inspiring each of us to act for the good of all, believing “failure is impossible.”

Emeritus Trustees

Lorraine Cappellino
Marian Casey
Georgia Dillard
Helen Mary Hogan
Colleen Hunt
Mary M. Hush
Margaret MacNab
Pearl Holmes
Margaret Seward
Betty Steinman
Linda Strehl
Elizabeth M. Tray
Beverly Bar Vaughan

Chair, Board of Trustees

Lorie Lachiusa Barnum

Executive Director

Executive Director

Susan B. Anthony House

Patricia R. Carey, Chair
Sandra D. Rees, Vice-Chair
Shirley Ebyer, Treasurer
E. Ann Scott, Secretary
Deborah Howe Allen
Thomas R. Agera
Barbara F. Kishnall
Rachel Bredy Bandych
Linda Gilden
Ed Hall
Alan lay
Teresa Johnson
Charlotte A. Nilsen
Eric W. Logan
Valerie Mariner
Steve Morse
William R. Morse
James E. Paton
Jane Pitt
Gita Ramachandran
Dolores J. Rose
Joanne vanZandt

With sincere thanks,

[Signature]
UPCOMING EVENTS FOR 2003

Susan B. Anthony Birthday Luncheon
Thursday, February 13
Rochester Riverside Convention Center
Guest Speaker: Helen Thomas

Individual tickets are available at all Wegmans Home Video Departments. Tables are available by calling (585) 279-7490, ext. 15.

10th Annual Education Contest
Grades 4-12
January through March
Tuesday, May 6—Award Ceremony
Rochester Museum & Science Center

6th Annual Golf Scramble
Thursday, June 19
Victor Hills Golf Course

19th Amendment Commemoration
Tuesday, August 26
Mount Hope Cemetery

4th Annual Legacy Race
5K Run/Walk for Women’s Progress
September
www.rochester.edu/SBA

Look for more details at www.susanbanthonyhouse.org

Mission
OF THE SUSAN B. ANTHONY HOUSE
is to disseminate the story of Susan B. Anthony’s life-long struggle to gain the right to vote for women and to secure civil, political, social, educational, and economic rights for all Americans. To achieve this, we own, manage, protect, and preserve the home where Susan B. Anthony lived from 1866 until her death in 1906; collect artifacts and research materials directly related to Anthony’s life and work; and make these resources available to the public through tours, exhibitions, publications, and educational programs.

“IT’S THE HOME OF CHANGE”