

Susan B. Anthony House Newsletter

Donor Supplement April 2009

Thank YOU for bringing Susan B. Anthony to life for thousands of people each year!

Through our wonderful members, donors, sponsors, visitors, and friends, the Susan B. Anthony House is able keep Miss Anthony's vision alive and relevant to people of all ages today. We thank all of you for your support, and recognize especially those listed here whose contributions in the period from March 21, 2008 to March 20, 2009 advanced the mission of the House. We apologize for any omissions or errors and invite you to call Ellen Wheeler, Director of Development, at 585-279-7490, ext. 12, with corrections or questions.

MISSION STATEMENT
*The Susan B. Anthony House is a learning center
through which we share
and interpret Miss Anthony's life
as a champion of women's rights, thereby inspiring & challenging individuals
to improve their lives & communities.*

Volunteer Mary Ellen Sweeney and executive director Deborah Hughes display the artifacts that are now on loan to Washington state for its centennial celebration of woman suffrage.

Inspiring & Influencing Others

Inspiration Express introduces Girl Scouts to Miss Anthony and her model of civic engagement.

Creating an Historic Neighborhood Campus

Cleaning up the old subway siding near the railroad tracks.

Preserving Properties & Artifacts

IN PRAISE OF MEMBERS

We currently have approximately 625 members, a number we need to grow to around 2,000 in the next several years if we are going to carry on the mission of the House. Thank you—to all of our members—for stepping up to Miss Anthony's cause, for keeping her vision alive, and for perpetuating her story to inspire current and future generations.

IN PRAISE OF DONORS

The Susan B. Anthony House relies on donations for general needs as well as for specific purposes to carry on its mission of keeping alive Miss Anthony's vision of equality for all. Whether it's the autumn appeal that emphasizes the cause of winning full rights of citizenship for all, or tributes that honor or remember a friend or loved one, or general donations that benefit all we do, we thank all of you listed here for your thoughtfulness and generosity.
